

Deacon Michael McFarland was set apart in 2017, and is affiliated with the Order of St. Stephen, Deacon (OSSD). Michael serves on the Church Council and has a master's degree in professional administration, from Duquesne University, and works as a Process Improvement Specialist with a Project Management Professional certification. Michael is married and enjoys golf and is an avid Ravens and Orioles fan.